Acknowledgement of the Wangal people of the Eora Nation

We acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land upon which we meet, the Wangal People of the Eora Nation, and pay our respects to their elders, past, present, and emerging; and we pray that God will unite us all in the knowledge of his Son, in whom all things were created, in heaven and on earth.

We are glad that you have found us!

We affirm that through God's redeeming love for all, we are one in Christ. We respect the inherent and valuable contributions each member makes to the Body of Christ. We celebrate our diversity and recognize the sacred worth and dignity of all persons of any age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race, ethnic origin, economic reality, family status, sexual orientation, diverse ability, or social status. We believe that through Christ we are being included and welcomed by God and one another. As we journey towards inclusion, we proclaim this welcome to all God's people, especially to those who have known the pain of exclusion and discrimination within the church, affirming that no one is excluded or condemned. We invite all persons to journey with us as we discover the call of God on our lives through the ministries of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Burwood. To that end, St. Paul's Anglican Church commits to the welcome and inclusion of all persons as children of God and declares itself to be a welcoming community of faith.

THANK YOUS

How can we thank everyone? People are doing so much each week to keep the place going. Fr James sends his thanks to everyone for all you are doing. He says hello and reminds us that he is keeping everyone in his prayers.

In many ways he has just moved his office north to Shetland, a bit of an extreme office relocation, but he has it working very efficiently and I hear from him frequently. He still makes time to walk and meet new people as he and Helen do all the tasks associated with establishing their new home like setting up utilities such as electricity accounts and the like. Everything moves much slower in Shetland than it does it does in Sydney. Fr James tells me that rather than Shetland being isolated from the rest of the world, the rest of the world comes to Shetland.

Last Sunday special thanks go to Michael Deasey, Bailey Yates, Mark Battison and Peter Jewkes. And of course the choir for bringing us such a wonderful musical feast for our worship. And to the servers at both the 8.00 o'clock and 10 o'clock services, and to Judith Laurence and Michael Deasey who write the prayers for us each week. Also those who make up the reading and intercession roster each week and of course our welcomers.

There is hardly anyone who does not contribute in some way to our Sunday experience, even just by your presence, be it at 8.00am or 10.00am by welcoming someone new or helping someone struggling. A kind word can go a long way. And that cup of tea or coffee is always appreciated. Thank you to everyone who is involved in morning tea either after the 8.0'clock service or the 10 O'clock service.

Don't forget to buy a book or a pot of jam from the trading table.

Thank you to all those who came to the Community Choir's concert on Friday night. Remember that all funds go to supporting the Parish Pantry.

THANK YOU EVERYONE

Flowers as a Memorial

Decorating our church with flowers is one way to remember a loved one or in thanksgiving for a special event. If you would like to give flowers in memory of a loved one, or as an offering of thanksgiving please contact Judith Laurence the week prior to the date at: judealaurence@gmail.com or on 0438041726 and contact Caroline in the parish office at: office@stpaulsbuwood.org.au to arrange the wording of the memorial notice in the pew bulletin.

Save the date!

This year's Christmas Luncheon will be held in the parish hall on Sunday 1st of December at 12 noon.

Parish Prayer List

At St Paul's, we pray by name for people who have either asked for our prayers or for whom someone else has made a request. This list is updated every 3 months or when we receive a new request. Some names are on our list on a long-term basis while others reflect a more immediate need and are short term.

We will only be reading the names on the short-term list in the services but the whole list will still be included in the printed prayers for parishioners to use throughout the week. The full list of names will be read in our midweek service.

Names can be added to or removed from the lists at any time.

Christianity.com says that in an era of moral and ethical challenges, the Archangel Michael's example of unwavering devotion to God's will is a source of inspiration and strength.

~ At a time when I called to you (my God), you gave me answer: and put new strength within my soul.

INTERCESSIONS

Sunday 29th September 2024 - St Michael and All Angels

[PRESIDER] Let us pray for God's Church and for his world, as we look for his Kingdom which is to come.

Father in heaven, by his blood your Christ has ransomed us to you, and has made us a kingdom and priests to you our God. As the angels minister to you in heaven, strengthen your Church to serve you here on earth.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Father in heaven, when the angels greeted the birth of your Son they sang for joy 'Glory to God and peace on earth'. Bless with Christ's peace the nations of the world.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Father in heaven, your Son has promised to your children the care of the guardian angels who look upon your face. Protect by your mercy our neighbours, families and friends.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Father in heaven, you give your angels charge over those who trust in you to guard them in all their ways. Be with those in trouble, rescue them and show them your salvation. We bring to you those for whom we have been asked to pray: Belinda, James Budin, Deb Edmeades, Florence, David, Kerryanne Graham, Graham Griffiths, Merle Gorman, Clyde Livingstone, Harland Munro, Graham Norman, Yolande Phillips, Pam Priest, Tammy, King Charles, Catherine, Princess of Wales, Joyce Bannister, Barry Brandy, Dale Berry, John Burns, Betty Daniels, Debbie, Elsie Dunnam, Chris Grantham, Malcolm Green, Barbara Hawkins, Karen, Enid Kell, Terry Kelly, Helen Kingsley, Terry and Betsy McKay, Melissa Moore, Sally Palmer, Winnie Pang, Michelle Phillips, Robert, Diane Smith, John Sorensen, Peter Sorensen, Sylvia, Anne Wardle, Bill Whittle, Bob Woods, others known to us and those who have no one to pray for them.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Father in heaven, your angel declares 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.' 'Blessed indeed,' says the Spirit, 'for they may rest from their labours, for they take with them the record of their deeds.'

Enfold in your love those who have recently departed: Fr Warwick Winsall-Hall, Bryan Kwong, Janet Knight, Russell and Ben Smith, Sr Margaret Hill, Fr John Usher and Charlotte O'Brien; and for those whose year's mind occurs at this time: Fr Denis Robinson, Daphne Storey, Daphne Thomas, Ruth Correy, Jeffrey Davies, Alfred Montgomery, David Morgan and Mabel McNeill.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Father in heaven, the angels sing by day and night around your throne:

'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God almighty.'
With Michael, prince of the angels, who contends by our side, with Gabriel, your herald, who brings glad tidings, with Raphael, the protector, who ministers your healing, and with the whole company of heaven, we worship you, we give you glory, we sing your praise and exalt you forever.

PAUSE FOR SILENT PRAYER

[PRESIDER] Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.

Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
