Acknowledgement of the Wangal people of the Eora Nation

We acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land upon which we meet, the Wangal People of the Eora Nation, and pay our respects to their elders, past, present, and emerging; and we pray that God will unite us all in the knowledge of his Son, in whom all things were created, in heaven and on earth.

We are glad that you have found us!

We affirm that through God's redeeming love for all, we are one in Christ. We respect the inherent and valuable contributions each member makes to the Body of Christ. We celebrate our diversity and recognize the sacred worth and dignity of all persons of any age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race, ethnic origin, economic reality, family status, sexual orientation, diverse ability, or social status. We believe that through Christ we are being included and welcomed by God and one another. As we journey towards inclusion, we proclaim this welcome to all God's people, especially to those who have known the pain of exclusion and discrimination within the church, affirming that no one is excluded or condemned. We invite all persons to journey with us as we discover the call of God on our lives through the ministries of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Burwood. To that end, St. Paul's Anglican Church commits to the welcome and inclusion of all persons as children of God and declares itself to be a welcoming community of faith.

The Advent Book Discussion Group on Zoom: The First Christmas

Advent Discussion Book: The First Christmas, What the Gospels Really Teach About Jesus’s Birth by Borg and Crossan. The authors show how history has biased our reading of the nativity story as it appears in the Gospels of Matthew of Luke. They ask ‘What do these stories mean from the perspective of the 1st and 21st centuries?’ They show that the Christmas story, read in its original context is far richer and more challenging than people imagine.

The first Zoom meeting: 7pm Tuesday 12th November, and thereafter weekly each Tuesday night until the 17th December when will have a break for 3 weeks. We will resume meetings on Tuesday 14th January. The zoom sessions will take around 1 hour.

Parish Prayer List

At St Paul's, we pray by name for people who have either asked for our prayers or for whom someone else has made a request. This list is updated every 3 months or when we receive a new request. Some names are on our list on a long-term basis while others reflect a more immediate need and are short term.

We will only be reading the names on the short-term list in the services but the whole list will still be included in the printed prayers for parishioners to use throughout the week. The full list of names will be read in our midweek service.

Names can be added to or removed from the lists at any time.

INTERCESSIONS

Sunday 6th October 2024 - Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

[PRESIDER] Let us pray for God's Church and for his world, as we look for his Kingdom which is to come.

Lord God, as we bring our prayers to you this morning, we remember the strength we have when we place our trust in you.

Inspire your church throughout the world, especially all in positions of authority: Archbishops Justin, Geoffrey and Kanishka, Bishop Michael and Fr James, Michael and all on our parish ministry team. Strengthen and uphold The Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea, its clergy and people that it may be a light to the nation. We pray for our parish pantry, giving thanks for the volunteers who run it and those who support it so generously. We pray too for all who seek its aid.

Without your help we can do nothing good.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Lord, we give thanks for the universe and its many wonders: the warmth and light of the sun, the refreshment of rain and the power of the wind and the waves. May we always praise you for the gifts of your creation.

Without your help we can do nothing good.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Lord, we pray for the peace of our broken and divided world, remembering all who live in fear of their lives. We pray especially for people in distress in the Middle East and Ukraine. May old hatreds be overcome as nations look to the good of their people. Bless the peacemakers and advocates for change, that they will undertake their roles without fear or favour.

Without your help we can do nothing good.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Lord, we bring before you children in distress, whether because of poverty, domestic violence, abuse, neglect, bullying, mental health or other more complex needs. Bless the people who offer them aid and seek to comfort them. While they are on the school holidays, we pray for both refreshment and safety. Bless all our schools, students and the teaching and support staff as they prepare for the term ahead and Yr 12 students facing their final exams.

Without your help we can do nothing good.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

We pray for the homeless, for prisoners and those who mourn. Strengthen and comfort the sick and dying and those who have asked for our prayers: Belinda, James Budin, Deb Edmeades, Florence, David, Susanna and Richard Gore, Merle Gorman, Kerryanne Graham, Graham Griffiths, Lily, Clyde Livingstone, Harland Munro, Graham Norman, Yolande Phillips, Pam Priest, Tammy, King Charles, Catherine, Princess of Wales, Joyce Bannister, Barry Brandy, Dale Berry, John Burns, Betty Daniels, Debbie, Elsie Dunnam, Chris Grantham, Malcolm Green, Barbara Hawkins, Karen, Enid Kell, Terry Kelly, Helen Kingsley, Terry and Betsy McKay, Melissa Moore, Sally Palmer, Winnie Pang, Michelle Phillips, Robert, Diane Smith, John Sorensen, Peter Sorensen, Sylvia,

Anne Wardle, Bill Whittle, Bob Woods, others known to us and those who have no one to pray for them.

Without your help we can do nothing good.

Lord, in your mercy: hear our prayer.

Lord, you created us and have a purpose for each of us. We pray for those who have heard your call and are now at rest, particularly for Fr Warwick Winsall-Hall, and those who have their year's mind at this time: John Corkhill, George Gregory, Margaret Perkin, Ronald Berghofer, Helen Bell, Brian Furley, Keith Daniel, Mona Hardgrove, William Denney, Gordon Young, Michelle Coles, Reggie Luhr, Fr Denis Robinson, Daphne Storey, Daphne Thomas, Ruth Correy, Jeffrey Davies, Alfred Montgomery, David Morgan and Mabel McNeill. May they rest in peace and rise in glory in communion with all the saints.

[PRESIDER] Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.

Grant that what we have asked in faith we may by your grace receive, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Job 1.1; 2.1-10; Psalm 26; Hebrews 1.1-4; 2.5-12; Mark 10.2-16

The Kingdom of God is available for all, offered in unconditional love.
We are the ones that set limitations, not God.

≈ We pray that like Job and the Psalmist that we walk with integrity, on an even path, with the Lord.

≈ Give thanks for the work of Nungalinya College in Darwin which provides ecumenical theological and community education to First Nations people.
