

ST PAUL'S ANGLICAN CHURCH
Burwood

FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT
Laetare Sunday

Sunday 30 March 2025

8:00AM SAID EUCHARIST

Welcome to St Paul's

☩ We warmly welcome you and are glad that you have come to worship God with us today on the Fourth Sunday in Lent, also known as Laetare Sunday.

Whether you are visiting for a short while, have moved here and are joining our Parish, or are returning to your faith, I welcome you to St Paul's Anglican Church, Burwood.

This historic church, dedicated to St Paul the Apostle & Martyr, was designed by the Australian colonial architect Edmund Blacket. It had its foundation stone laid on 29 July 1871 and the first service was held in the church on Saturday 27 April 1872. Since its earliest days St Paul's has maintained a fine reputation for liturgy and music in the Tractarian tradition.

We are very glad that you are here and we look forward to getting to know you. Refreshments (tea/coffee), when served, are available in the Parish Hall immediately following the service. The hall can be found by turning left when leaving the church.

May God richly bless you!

Peace,
Fr James Collins OAM
Rector

Greeting

✠ Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins, whose mercy endures for ever.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

The priest continues with the opening sentence:

God has reconciled us to himself through Christ, and given us the ministry of reconciliation.

Let us pray.

Almighty God,

to whom all hearts are open, all desires known,

and from whom no secrets are hidden:

cleanse the thoughts of our hearts

by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie eleison

The congregation repeats each petition after the priest.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Collect

All remain standing for the collect of the day.

God of compassion, you are slow to anger, and full of mercy, welcoming sinners who return to you with penitent hearts: receive in your loving embrace all who come home to you, and seat them at your bountiful table, that, with all your children, they may feast with delight on all that satisfies the hungry heart. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Saviour, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Please sit for the readings and psalm.

First Reading: Joshua 5.2–12

At the end of the reading:

For the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm: 32

The verses are said alternately between the reader and the congregation.

Please observe a short break at the colon in the middle of each verse.

- 1 Blessed are those whose sin is forgiven: (pause)
whose iniquity is put away.
- 2 Blessed are those to whom the Lord imputes no blame: *(pause) and in whose spirit there is no guile.
- 3 For whilst I held my tongue: (pause)
my bones wasted away with my daily complaining.
- 4 Your hand was heavy upon me day and night: *(pause) and my moisture was dried up like a drought in summer.
- 5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you: (pause)
and my iniquity I did not hide;
- 6 I said 'I will confess my transgressions to the Lord': *(pause)
and so you forgave the wickedness of my sin.
- 7 For this cause shall everyone that is faithful make their prayer to you in the day of trouble: (pause)
and in the time of the great water flood, it shall not come near them.
- 8 You are a place to hide me in, you will preserve me from trouble: *(pause)
you will surround me with deliverance on every side.
- 9 'I will instruct you, and direct you in the way that you should go: (pause)
I will fasten my eye upon you, and give you counsel.
- 10 'Be not like horse or mule, that have no understanding: *(pause) whose forward course must be curbed with bit and bridle.'
- 11 Great tribulations remain for the ungodly: (pause)
but whoever puts their trust in the Lord, mercy embraces them on every side.
- 12 Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous, and be glad: *(pause) and shout for joy, all you that are true of heart.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5.16–21

At the end of the reading:

For the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand for the gradual hymn.

Gradual Hymn

RENDEZ Á DIEU 98 98 D

Ps 118 in the Genevan Psalter 1543

Adapted or composed by Louis Bourgeois (c.1510-61)

Harmony by R.V.W. based on the Scottish version of 1664

- 1 When all the world to life is waking,
And night withdraws from earth and sky,
Creation's song to thee is making
Its praises heard, O Lord most high.
Thine is the splendour of the morning,
Thine is the evening's tranquil light;
Thine, too, the veil which till the dawning
Shrouds all the earth in peaceful night.
- 2 Maker of worlds beyond our knowing,
Realms which no human eye can scan,
Yet by a wondrous love bestowing
Through Christ thy saving aid to man;
Lord, while the hymns of all creation
Rise ever to thy throne above,
We too would join in adoration,
Owning thee God of changeless love.

Jack Winslow (1882-1974)

Remain standing for the gospel.

Gospel: Luke 15.11–32

Glory to you, Word of God; Lord Jesus Christ.

Glory to you, Word of God; Lord Jesus Christ.

I am the light of the world, says the Lord;

whoever follows me will have the light of life.

Glory to you, Word of God; Lord Jesus Christ.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

✠ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

After the Gospel:

For the Gospel of the Lord,
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sermon

Fr Mark Battison
Honorary Assistant Priest

Please stand for the Creed.

Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, ✠ and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel for the prayers.

Prayers of the Faithful.

The following response is used:

Lord, the giver of all goodness:
Hear our prayer.

At the end of the prayers, the following is recited:

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.
Grant that what we have asked in faith
we may by your grace receive,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A selection of Scripture sentences may be used, concluding with the Prayer of Approach:

We do not presume
to come to your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your manifold and great mercies.

We are not worthy
so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table.
But you are the same Lord
whose nature is always to have mercy.
Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord,
so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ,
and to drink his blood,
that we may evermore dwell in him
and he in us. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

The priest introduces the confession.

Compassion and forgiveness belong to the Lord our God, though we have rebelled and wandered far off.

(Silence may be kept)

Let us then ask for mercy, confessing our sins in penitence and faith.

Merciful God,
our maker and our judge,
we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, and in what we have failed to do:
we have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;
we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.
Father, forgive us.
Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The priest pronounces the Absolution

Almighty God, who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:

✠ pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

All stand.

Greeting of Peace

The priest introduces the Greeting of Peace with the following words:

Christ has reconciled us to God in one body by the cross.

We meet in his name and share his peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

The greeting of peace is exchanged through a bow towards those seated around you.

Please remain standing for the offertory hymn on the next page.

An offertory is taken for the work of the parish. This can be done in cash via the collection plate, direct debit using the details on page 19 or by scanning the QR code to make your offering directly from your mobile phone.

There is also a donation point at the West Door where you can tap your card.

MILES LANĚ CM

crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him, Lord of all.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 All hail the power of Jesu's name;
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem
To crown him Lord of all. | 4 Ye seed of Israel's chosen race,
Ye ransomed of the fall,
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all. |
| 2 Crown him, ye morning stars of light,
Who fixed this floating ball;
Now hail the Strength of Israel's might,
And crown him Lord of all. | 5 Hail him, ye heirs of David's line,
Whom David Lord did call;
The God incarnate, Man divine,
And crown him Lord of all. |
| 3 Crown him, ye martyrs of your God,
Who from his altar call;
Praise him whose way of pain ye trod,
And crown him Lord of all. | 6 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall,
Go spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all. |
| 7 Let every tribe and every tongue
To him their hearts enthrall,
Lift high the universal song,
And crown him Lord of all. | |

Edward Perronet (1726-92) and others

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness we have received the bread we offer you: fruit of the earth and work of human hands, it will become for us the bread of life.

Blessed be God for ever.

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness we have received the wine we offer you: fruit of the vine and work of human hands, it will become our spiritual drink.

Blessed be God for ever.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The priest continues with the Prayer of Thanksgiving.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

✠ Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord;

Hosanna in the highest.

Please kneel. The priest then continues with the Prayer of Consecration.

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

✠ Renew us by your Holy Spirit, unite us in the body of your Son, and bring us with all your people into the joy of your eternal kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, we worship you, Father, in songs of never-ending praise:

✠ Blessing and honour and glory and power,
are yours for ever and ever. Amen.

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever,
Amen.

The priest breaks the bread and says the following:

[We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.]

We who are many are one body,

for we all share in the one bread.

Jesus, Lamb of God, have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sins, have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer of the world, grant us your peace.

Invitation to Communion

Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Happy are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed.

Communion

Communion is distributed along the full length of the communion rail.
Please form a single line on the Organ side of the nave and return on the Pulpit side.

Post-Communion Prayer

The priest says the following seasonal prayer:
God of mercy, may we who have shared in this holy meal know your forgiveness in our lives, bring your reconciliation to others, and be a sign of your wholeness in this broken world.

Father, we offer ourselves to you as a living sacrifice through Jesus Christ our Lord. Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory. Amen.

Blessing

The priest says this seasonal Blessing:
Christ our Saviour draw you to himself, that you may find in him crucified a sure ground for faith, a firm support for hope, and the assurance of sin forgiven; and the blessing of God almighty, ✠ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.
Amen.

Dismissal

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
✠ In the name of Christ, Amen.

Please stand to sing the final hymn.

Final Hymn

CWM RHONDDA 87 87 47 John Hughes (1873-1932)

- 1 Guide me, O thou great Redeemer,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty,
Hold me with thy powerful hand:
Bread of heaven, bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more;
Feed me till I want no more.
- 2 Open now the crystal fountain
Whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through:
Strong deliverer, strong deliverer,
Be thou still my strength and shield;
Be thou still my strength and shield.
- 3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death, and hell's Destruction
Land me safe on Canaan's side:
Songs of praises; songs of praises
I will ever give to thee;
I will ever give to thee.

Welsh, William Williams (1717-91)
Tr. Peter Williams (1727-96) and others

Please sit for the notices.

Postlude

Pavana William Byrd (1543-1623)

To maintain the prayerfulness of the liturgy, it is requested that there be no applause at the end of the organ postlude. Please be mindful of those who wish to stay and listen.

You will need a driver's licence or other ID to enter the club. If you wish to join the club it is a $2 membership fee per year.

Please note that the Parish Lunch, is held on the second Sunday of the month.

Pew Reflections – Anglican Board of Mission

Lent 4 C – Sunday 30 March 2025

Joshua 5.2-12; Psalm 32; 2 Corinthians 5.16-21; Luke 15.11-32

Today we read the familiar story about the Prodigal Son. For some of us it's easy to feel that we take on the role of the older son, always there, usually ignored. But the point of the story is to show us that God's love is there for us, no matter how much of a mess we have turned our lives into. When we're in the mud surrounded by the swine – a desperate situation for a pious Jew – we should remember that God is always willing to welcome us home with a warm embrace and a party.

- Pray that all who would benefit from returning to God would do so, firm in the knowledge that a warm welcome awaits.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of North India.
