

ST PAUL'S ANGLICAN CHURCH
Burwood

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
Sunday after Ascension

Sunday 17 May 2026

8:00AM SAID EUCHARIST

Welcome to St Paul's

We warmly welcome you and are glad that you have come to worship God with us today on the Seventh Sunday of Easter, also known as the Sunday after Ascension.

Whether you are visiting for a short while, have moved here and are joining our Parish, or are returning to your faith, I welcome you to St Paul's Anglican Church, Burwood.

This historic church, dedicated to St Paul the Apostle & Martyr, was designed by the Australian colonial architect Edmund Blacket. It had its foundation stone laid on 29 July 1871 and the first service was held in the church on Saturday 27 April 1872. Since its earliest days St Paul's has maintained a fine reputation for liturgy and music in the Tractarian tradition.

We are very glad that you are here and we look forward to getting to know you. Refreshments (tea/coffee), when served, are available in the Parish Hall immediately following the service. The hall can be found by turning left when leaving the church.

Please take this order of service home.

Greeting

✠ Blessed be God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever.

Christ is Risen. Alleluia!

He is Risen indeed. Alleluia!

The priest continues with the opening sentence:

This is eternal life, that we may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent.

Let us pray.

Almighty God,

to whom all hearts are open, all desires known,

and from whom no secrets are hidden:

cleanse the thoughts of our hearts

by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie eleison

The congregation repeats each petition after the priest.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Gloria in excelsis

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, ✠ in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

All remain standing as the priest says the collect of the day.

Collect

O God, whose Son, Jesus, prayed for his disciples, and sent them into the world to proclaim the coming of your kingdom: by your Holy Spirit, hold the Church in unity, and keep it faithful to your word, so that, breaking bread together, we may be one with Christ in faith and love and service, now and for ever.

Amen.

All SIT for the readings and psalm.

First Reading: Acts 1:6-14

So when they had come together, they asked him, 'Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.' When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up towards heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, 'Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up towards heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.'

Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

For the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm: 68.1–10, 32–35

The verses are said alternately between the reader and the congregation.

Please observe a short break at the colon in the middle of each verse.

- 1 God shall arise, and his enemies shall be scattered: (pause)
those that hate him shall flee before his face.
- 2 As smoke is dispersed, so shall they be dispersed: *(pause)
as wax melts before a fire, so shall the wicked perish at the presence of God.
- 3 But the righteous shall be glad and exult before God: (pause)
they shall rejoice with gladness.
- 4 O sing to God, sing praises to his name: *(pause)
glorify him that rode through the deserts, him whose name is the Lord, and exult before him.
- 5 He is the father of the fatherless, he upholds the cause of the widow: (pause)
God in his holy dwelling place.
- 6 He gives the desolate a home to dwell in,
and brings the prisoners out into prosperity: (pause)
but rebels must dwell in a barren land.
- 7 O God, when you went out before your people: (pause)
when you marched through the wilderness,

- 8 The earth shook, the heavens poured down water: *(pause)
before the God of Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.
- 9 You showered down a generous rain, O God: (pause)
you prepared the land of your possession when it was weary.
- 10 And there your people settled: *(pause)
in the place that your goodness, O God, had made ready for the poor.
- 32 Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth: (pause)
O sing praises to the Lord,
- 33 To him that rides upon the highest heavens,
that were from the beginning: (pause)
who utters his voice, which is a mighty voice.
- 34 Ascribe power to God, whose majesty is over Israel: (pause) and his might is in the clouds.
- 35 Terrible is God who comes from his holy place: *(pause)
the God of Israel who gives power and strength to his people.
Blessed be God.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 5

Now as an elder myself and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as one who shares in the glory to be revealed, I exhort the elders among you to tend the flock of God that is in your charge, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion but willingly, as God would have you do it—not for sordid gain but eagerly. Do not lord it over those in your charge, but be examples to the flock. And when the chief shepherd appears, you will win the crown of glory that never fades away. In the same way, you who are younger must accept the authority of the elders. And all of you must clothe yourselves with humility in your dealings with one another, for

'God opposes the proud,
but gives grace to the humble.'

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. Discipline yourselves; keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters throughout the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering. And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.

Through Silvanus, whom I consider a faithful brother, I have written this short letter to encourage you, and to testify that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it. Your sister church in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings; and so does my son Mark. Greet one another with a kiss of love.

Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

For the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

HYFRYDOL 87 87 D

Melody by Richard Huw Pritchard (1811-87)

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 Alleluya, sing to Jesus,
His the sceptre, his the throne;
Alleluya, his the triumph,
His the victory alone:
Hark the songs of peaceful Sion
Thunder like a mighty flood;
Jesus, out of every nation,
Hath redeemed us by his blood. 2 Alleluya, not as orphans
Are we left in sorrow now;
Alleluya, he is near us,
Faith believes, nor questions how;
Though the cloud from sight received him
When the forty days were o'er,
Shall our hearts forget his promise,
'I am with you evermore'? | 3 Alleluya, Bread of Angels,
Thou on earth our food, our stay;
Alleluya, here the sinful
Flee to thee from day to day;
Intercessor, Friend of sinners,
Earth's Redeemer, plead for me,
Where the songs of all the sinless
Sweep across the crystal sea. 4 Alleluya, King eternal,
Thee the Lord of lords we own;
Alleluya, born of Mary,
Earth thy footstool, heaven thy throne:
Thou within the veil hast entered,
Robed in flesh, our great High Priest;
Thou on earth both Priest and Victim
In the Eucharistic Feast. |

Remain standing for the gospel.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Lord said: I will not leave you orphans.

I will come back to you and your hearts will rejoice.

Alleluia!

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

✠ A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel: John 17.1-11

After Jesus had spoken these words, he looked up to heaven and said, 'Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed.

'I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.

For the Gospel of the Lord,

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Sermon

Fr Mark Battison

Honorary Assisting Priest

All STAND for the Creed.

Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, † and the life of the world to come. Amen.

All KNEEL for the prayers.

Prayers of the Faithful.

The following response is used:

Jesus, Christ, ascended and glorified:
Hear our prayer.

At the end of the prayers, the following is recited:

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.
Grant that what we have asked in faith
we may by your grace receive,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A selection of Scripture sentences may be used, concluding with the Prayer of Approach Access recited together:

We do not presume
to come to your table, merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your manifold and great mercies.
We are not worthy
so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table.
But you are the same Lord
whose nature is always to have mercy.
Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord,
so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ,
and to drink his blood,
that we may evermore dwell in him
and he in us. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

The priest introduces the confession.

Christ has entered heaven itself, there to appear before God on our behalf.

(Silence may be kept)

Let us therefore draw near in full assurance of faith, and confess our sins to the God of grace.

Merciful God,
our maker and our judge,

we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, and in what we have failed to do:
we have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;
we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.
Father, forgive us.
Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The priest pronounces the Absolution.

Almighty God, who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:
† pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

All STAND.

Greeting of Peace

The Greeting of Peace is introduced with these words:

Christ is risen. Alleluia!

He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

*The greeting of peace is exchanged through a bow towards those seated around you.
Please remain standing for the offertory hymn.*

An offertory is taken for the work of the parish. This can be given in cash via the collection plate, direct debit using the details on page 19 or by scanning the QR code to make your offering directly from your mobile phone.

There is also a donation point at the West Door where you can tap your card.

Offertory Hymn

ST MAGNUS CM

Jeremiah Clark (c. 1673-1707)

- 1 The head that once was crowned with thorns
Is crowned with glory now:
A royal diadem adorns
The mighty victor's brow.
- 2 The highest place that heaven affords
Is his, is his by right,
The King of kings and Lord of lords,
And heaven's eternal light;

- 3 The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below,
To whom he manifests his love,
And grants his name to know.
- 4 To them the cross, with all its shame.
With all its grace is given:
Their name an everlasting name,
Their joy the joy of heaven.
- 5 They suffer with their Lord below,
They reign with him above,
Their profit and their joy to know
The mystery of his love.
- 6 The cross he bore is life and health,
Though shame and death to him;
His people's hope, his people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme.

Thomas Kelly (1769-1854)

The Preparation

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness we have received the bread we offer you: fruit of the earth and work of human hands, it will become for us the bread of life.

Blessed be God for ever.

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness we have received the wine we offer you: fruit of the vine and work of human hands, it will become our spiritual drink.

Blessed be God for ever.

Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The priest continues with the Prayer of Thanksgiving.

Sanctus & Benedictus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
✠ Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord;
Hosanna in the highest.

All KNEEL. The priest then continues with the Prayer of Consecration.

Memorial Acclamation

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

✠ Renew us by your Holy Spirit, unite us in the body of your Son, and bring us with all your people into the joy of your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, we worship you, Father, in songs of never-ending praise:

✠ Blessing and honour and glory and power,
are yours for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are confident to pray:

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever,
Amen.

The breaking of the bread

The priest breaks the bread and says the following:

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body,

for we all share in the one bread.

Agnus Dei

Jesus, Lamb of God, have mercy on us.

Jesus, bearer of our sins, have mercy on us.

Jesus, redeemer of the world, grant us your peace.

Invitation to Communion

Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Happy are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word and I shall be healed.

Communion

Communion is distributed along the full length of the communion rail.

Please form a single line on the Organ side of the nave and return on the Pulpit side.

At the end of the distribution of communion, all STAND for the post-communion prayer.

Post-Communion Prayer

God of glory you sent your Son Jesus Christ into the world to preach the gospel of the kingdom. Strengthen us who share this meal to continue his mission by living the good news we proclaim.

Father, we offer ourselves to you as a living sacrifice
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory. Amen.

Remain standing to sing the final hymn.

Final Hymn

GONFALON ROYAL LM

Percy Buck (1871-1947)

- 1 Eternal Monarch, King most high,
Whose blood hath brought redemption nigh,
By whom the death of Death was wrought
And conquering grace's battle fought:
- 2 Ascending to the throne of might,
And seated at the Father's right,
All power in heaven is Jesu's own,
That here his manhood had not known.
- 3 Yea, angels tremble when they see
How changed is our humanity;
For flesh hath purged what flesh had stained,
And God, the flesh of God, hath reigned.
- 4 Be thou our joy and strong defence,
Who art our future recompense:
So shall the light that springs from thee
Be ours through all eternity.
- 5 O risen Christ, ascended Lord,
All praise to thee let earth accord,
Who art, while endless ages run,
With Father and with Spirit One. Amen.

Latin, c. 5th century
Tr. J. M. Neale (1818-66)

Blessing

The priest says this seasonal Blessing:

Christ our exalted king pour upon you his abundant gifts and bring you to reign with him in glory; and the blessing of God almighty, ✠ the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.

Amen.

Dismissal

Go in the peace of Christ. Alleluia!

✠ Thanks be to God. Alleluia!

Postlude

Heut triumphieret Gottes Sohn from OrgelBüchlein BWV 630

J.S. Bach (1685-1750)

To maintain the prayerfulness of the liturgy, it is requested that there be no applause at the end of the organ postlude. Please be mindful of those who wish to stay and listen.

Seasonal Lunch

Mother's Day was chosen for the seasonal lunch as it was confirmation and Bishop Michael was presiding. The numbers were down slightly but still a success. The menu was marinated chicken drumsticks with a great selection of salads followed by slices/coffee. There were 51 tickets sold, 44 sat down and we made $769. Thank you for the donations of salads, slices and bread.

Festival of Wild Ideas 2026

St Paul's Festival of Wild Ideas continues today with Associate Professor David Smith. David is jointly appointed between the United States Study Centre and the School of Social & Political Sciences at the University of Sydney. His research examines conflict over religion & culture in America, and Australia including politics. His presentation is titled: The US and us: making sense of American politics. Cost: $20 to cover light lunch and drinks afterwards.

NSW Ecumenical Council

A Service for Prayer for Christian Unity will take place on Friday 22 May at 6:00pm at St Patrick's Cathedral, Parramatta. This is followed by the Annual Fundraising Dinner for the NSW Ecumenical Council at 7:00pm. This is an opportunity to meet like-minded Christians of other denominations.

If you need a lift to the service or dinner or have any questions about this event please contact Phillip Seale via email: phillip@pscontracting.com.au

Burwood Community Choir

The Autumn concert for the Burwood Community Choir @ St Paul's is on Friday 22 May in the parish hall at 7:00pm. Admission by donation and all proceeds from the concert will go to the Parish Pantry.

Choral Evensong

Our next Choral Evensong will take place on Sunday 31 May (Trinity Sunday) at 5:00pm. Why not make a day of it and attend the morning Eucharist, the final speaker in the Festival of Wild Ideas series and then complete your day with the splendour of Evensong.

Rectory Appeal

Thank you to those parishioners who have already given generously to the appeal. As we approach the end of the financial year, the Wardens would like to remind you of the National Trust account into which all donations are tax-deductible.

There will be a Parish Council Meeting next Wednesday night where the works on the rectory will be discussed further. We will then be in a position to report back to the Parish as to where we are at.

Parish Prayer List

In the Anglican cycle of prayer we pray for the Anglican Church of Papua New Guinea.

In our Parish cycle of prayer we pray for those members of our parish receiving communion at home or in hospital.

We bring before God those in our community who need the reassurance of your loving care for them. We pray particularly for:
